Work & Volunteer Experience

- Kuk Sool Won
  - After getting my black belt in October of 2017, I began helping kids learn and also conducted classes. In addition, I have also had to judge belt testings for lower ranking students.
- California Tamil Academy
  - Since graduating from the California Tamil Academy (a language school), I have returned to my school as an assistant teacher and have been teaching young kids the basics of reading and writing tamil.
- Alameda County Library
  - Over the summer of 2019, I volunteered at the Alameda County Library by helping organize certain events and games and also promote a summer reading game for young children.
- Sandwich Making for the Homeless
  - Every 3-4 months I make around 150 sandwiches with a group of 10 people at a local temple. We then pack these sandwiches in bags with other treats and send these bags to homeless centers in the East Bay so they can distribute them to the many homeless people who need a meal.
